

CES ONTARIO VIRTUAL CONFERENCE AGENDA

October 26, 2023 | Zoom

Panel	Session
9:30 – 10:30	Conference Welcome Keynote Presentation What's (un)Ethical? Navigating Ethical Questions in Evaluation Practice Betty Onyura
10:30 – 10:45	Break
10:45 – 12:00	Panel Session Building Better Evaluation - Increasing Diversity and Promoting Inclusion Our opening session addresses the state of evaluation today, exploring trends, concerns, and opportunities for change across the diversity, equity, inclusion, and anti-oppression framework. Dara Dillon: Data Democracy – Redefining Evaluation Inclusivity Christine Cassar: Reflecting on program evaluation – On Participation and Exclusion
12:00 – 1:00	Lunch
1:00 – 2:00	Concurrent Sessions Communities of Practice Roundtables Facilitator-guided discussion and networking around key evaluation communities (suggested CoPs): <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Health Evaluation2. Community-based Participatory Evaluation3. Education Evaluation4. Community Development5. Connecting Students and New Practitioners with Established Evaluators
2:00 – 2:15	Break
2:15 – 3:30	Concurrent Sessions Methods Seminars Leading evaluation practitioners host interactive methods and approaches sessions.

CES ONTARIO VIRTUAL CONFERENCE AGENDA

October 26, 2023 | Zoom

Panel	Session
	Intermediate Arts-Based Methods: Deep Dive into Poetry for Evaluation & Reflexive Practice with Jennica Nichols and Maya Lefkowich (AND implementation) Conducting Principles-focused Developmental Evaluation with Martha McGuire and Jennifer Fawcett
3:30 – 3:45	Break
3:45 – 4:45 pm	Peer to Peer Learning Creating Innovative Evaluation - Fostering Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Our closing session focuses on the interplay between innovation and evaluation and how novel approaches to evaluation – from a comparative perspective – can address key challenges faced by organizations and evaluators, and serve as enablers for fostering diversity, equity, and inclusion. Lead Facilitators: Tanya Darisi and Antoine Vandemoortele
4:45 – 5:00 pm	Closing Remarks – CES Ontario President